

Ministry Pass is a teaching resource and multimedia service for pastors. We specialize in sermon series materials and promotional artwork that is of high theological and artistic value. We exist to help church leaders communicate more efficiently and effectively, grow their congregations through discipleship and evangelism, and have more time to study the Word and minister to their congregations on a weekly basis.

COMPANY HISTORY

Justin Trapp launched Ministry Pass in October 2014 after stepping out in faith to create a resource library of sermon series and graphics so pastors could focus on leading instead of working. Following many months of hard work, we were ecstatic to find ourselves as a trending topic on Twitter on the day of our launch. Over 45,000 churches from over 130 countries downloaded a resource in the first two years, and that growth continues today.

KEY PERSONNEL

Justin Trapp, Founder
Wade Bearden, COO

"We are proud to provide pastors with resources that empower them to become the leader they want, not the leader that works, works, works."

"Ministry Pass is for pastors who are under-resourced and frustrated with your church's progress."

"Ministry Pass is for church leaders who don't have enough time to do all of the ministry demands each week."

"Ministry Pass has over 75 years of sermon series content"

"Ministry Pass is for the pastor who wants to see their church grow without compromising a healthy ministry/life balance."

Ministry Pass Founder

KEY FEATURES/BENEFITS

Ministry Pass sermon resources provide pastors with a head start on planning sermon series and drafting individual sermons, saving hours every week, while still putting their best foot forward.

Instead of staring at a blank page searching for ideas, Ministry Pass offers ready-to-use sermon content that can fit into any sermon or serve as an inspirational springboard for other ideas.

Key features of a Ministry Pass membership include:

- Topical, expository, Lectionary, and youth sermon calendars
- Sermon series on every book of the Bible
- Topical and expository sermon series
- Holiday sermon series
- Kids lesson calendar
- Church graphics
- Sermon bumper videos
- Countdown videos
- Social media graphics

While each series guide stands on its own, pastors can easily mix and match series guide content to create sermon series outlines completely original to their context to meet the specific needs of their church.

WHAT SETS YOU APART FROM YOUR COMPETITORS?

Ministry Pass serves as a research team for hardworking ministers.

Ministry Pass offers a library of over 1,500 sermon series guides, not full sermon manuscripts. For every series guide, there is a big-picture sermon theme and within the series there are individual sermons which include a biblical text, big idea, application point, and several bite-sized chunks of information, inspiration, and creativity related to the big idea.

Ministry Pass helps pastors find widely accessible commentary material and provide cited references and illustrations that they can use at their convenience and discretion. We like to think of our guides as "sermon starters". We encourage pastors to use our guides as a launching pad for writing their sermons, not a last-minute resource or a substitute for study.

Our aim is to assist pastors as they study the Bible, pray, and write their weekly sermons, creating materials that serve all preachers.
